

NATIONAL RADIO SCIENCE MEETING

- ◆ January 5-8, 2000 ◆ University of Colorado at Boulder
- ◆ January 4, 2000: Radio Techniques Workshop
- ◆ <http://cires.colorado.edu/ursi>

This open scientific meeting is sponsored by the U.S. National Committee of the International Union of Radio Science (URSI). It is held in cooperation with the following IEEE organizations: Antennas and Propagation Society and its Wave Propagation Standards Committee, Circuits and Systems Society, Communications Society, Electromagnetic Compatibility Society, Geoscience and Remote Sensing Society, Information Theory Group, Instrumentation and Measurement Society, Microwave Theory and Techniques Society, and the Nuclear Science Society. Papers on any topic in the interest area of a commission are welcome. Contact the commission chairperson or visit the web site for further information.

The Radar Techniques Workshop occurs on January 4. The main URSI meeting will begin on Wednesday, January 5, 2000.

COMMISSION A, Electromagnetic Metrology

Moto Kanda; (303) 497-5320
e-mail: mkanda@boulder.nist.gov

COMMISSION B, Fields and Waves

P.L.E. Uslenghi; (312) 996-5487
e-mail: uslenghi@eecs.uic.edu

COMMISSION C, Signals and Systems

Alfred O. Hero; (734) 763-0564
e-mail: hero@eecs.umich.edu

COMMISSION D, Electronics and Photonics

Alan Mickelson; (303) 492-7539
e-mail: mickel@schof.colorado.edu

COMMISSION E, Electromagnetic Noise and Interference

Jon Schoenberg; (505) 846-0650 (after 6/30 (719) 333-3190)
e-mail: schoenberg@ieee.org

COMMISSION F, Wave Propagation and Remote Sensing

Ed Westwater; (303) 497-6527
e-mail: ewestwater@etl.noaa.gov

COMMISSION G, Ionospheric Radio and Propagation

John C. Foster; (617) 981-5621
e-mail: jcf@haystack.mit.edu

Commission G's Radar Techniques Workshop

The Radar Techniques Workshop, which will be held this year prior to the meeting on Tuesday, January 4, 2000, will focus on technical aspects of ionospheric diagnostics using radar and radiowave techniques. The Workshop is meant to be a forum for the discussion of recent developments affecting the use and capabilities of radar instruments and facilities. Participation by the user community (especially students using these facilities) is encouraged.

COMMISSION H, Waves in Plasma

Min-Chang Lee; (617) 253-5956
e-mail: mclee@psfc.mit.edu

COMMISSION J, Radio Astronomy

Peter Napier; (505) 835-7000
e-mail: pnapier@nrao.edu

COMMISSION K, Electromagnetics in Biology and Medicine

James C. Lin; (312) 413-1052
e-mail: lin@eecs.uic.edu

STUDENT PRIZE PAPER COMPETITION

Prizes will be awarded to three graduate student papers. For information about these awards and specifications, please visit the web site. Awards will be made for First Prize in the amount of $1000, Second Prize at $750, and Third Prize at $500. Student papers and awards will be presented at the Plenary Session on Thursday morning, January 6, 2000.

SESSIONS

All special, joint and regular sessions are listed on the web site at <http://cires.colorado.edu/ursi>. Of special note is the Memorial Session for James R. Wait.

ABSTRACT SUBMISSION

The organizers of this meeting very strongly encourage the use of electronic submission. Details and instructions may be found on the web site. If you must submit your abstract by post, mail it to:

Ms. Julie McKie
