

Meteorology and Transportation

We had an event in 2006 that closed DIA just before the Christmas holiday. The airport stayed closed for 40 hours as heavy snow fell. If we had better forecast information and data at the time, we would have been able to stay open longer and recover quicker. – Dave Cunningham

This colored schematic illustrates the clearance priorities at Denver International Airport during a snow event.

Dave Cunningham
Aviation Operations Manager
Denver International Airport
Dave.Cunningham@flydenver.com

